

Hearing on “Combating Global Human Trafficking”
U.S. House of Representatives
House Foreign Affairs Committees
Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, and Global Human Rights

Ms. Evelyn Chumbow

Evelyn Chumbow is a survivor of child labor trafficking turned anti-trafficking activist and public speaker who focuses her life’s work on ending modern-day slavery. Today, Ms. Chumbow works tirelessly to raise awareness in communities to create employment opportunities for trafficking survivors. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Human Trafficking Legal Center and Free the Slaves. She has been invited to brief government agencies about human trafficking from a survivor’s perspective, including the Department of Homeland Security, the FBI, the State Department, and the Department of Justice.
